REGISTRATION
To register for the PgC, PgD or MSc, please complete a registration form which is available upon request from the Education & Training team, EandT@dsru.org.

COURSE FEES
Course fees consist of individual unit fees and annual academic enrolment fees.

Individual unit fees = £1090.00 + VAT. A 15% discount on unit fees is applied when four units are invoiced together for fast-track registration, or two units are invoiced together for standard registration (see below).

Annual academic enrolment fees are payable for every two units of study in a 12 month period. For 2019/2020 the fee is £600.00 + VAT (two units) or £1200.00 + VAT (four units). Enrolment fees will increase slightly each year.

All fees are subject to UK VAT, currently 20%.

Postgraduate Certificate (PgC), Diploma (PgD) and Masters (MSc) in Pharmacovigilance

A collaborative partnership with The University of Portsmouth School of Pharmacy and Biomedical Science

www.dsru.org
There is a growing need for qualified professionals within pharmacovigilance, at regulatory authorities and in academia – yet competition for the best roles is highly competitive and challenging. Make yourself a prime candidate for the role you aspire to by studying with DSRU.

In association with the University of Portsmouth, we’ve developed accredited postgraduate awards in pharmacovigilance. Learn from one of Europe’s leading pharmacovigilance training providers with an established reputation for academic excellence, to gain an industry recognised qualification in a flexible way that fits around your work and lifestyle.

Who should register?
- Pharmaceutical industry personnel working in areas including drug safety, clinical research, medical affairs, medical writing, regulatory affairs and medical information
- Staff from academic and research units working in drug safety or pharmacovigilance departments
- Regulatory authority staff
- Independent medical writers
- QPPVs

Programme features
- Choice of units relevant to your career
- Minimal time away from your workplace
- Access to a virtual learning environment to support your study
- Lecturers who are internationally renowned experts in their field
- Recognition of prior learning, certified or experiential, which may count towards the PgC, PgD and MSc awards
- Delegates who have attended a relevant DSRU course in the last two years may count that course towards the PgC, PgD or MSc by completing the necessary pre-course and post-course assignments.

Application process
Application forms are available upon request from the Education & Training team, EandT@dsru.org.

Standard entry requirements
- Either a first or second class honours degree in the biosciences, veterinary science, dentistry, pharmacy or medicine
- Or a degree in a different subject together with a portfolio demonstrating suitability for study on this course (portfolio should include: CV, training certificates, Manager’s letter explaining suitability for the course, detailed job description and 6 months experience in Pharmacovigilance)
- Proficiency in English, as demonstrated by an approved test (if English is not your first language)

Fast-track or standard registration?
On registration students choose either:
- Fast-track registration (four units must be completed in 12 months)
- Standard registration (two units must be completed in 12 months)

The 12 month period commences on the date of your registration with the University of Portsmouth. Transfer between fast-track and standard registration is only possible at the point of re-registration.

Location
Units are generally held in London or the Southampton area, UK. The venues are carefully chosen to provide pleasant accommodation and excellent travel accessibility.
